Sahaj Talwar

Creator · Self-Improvement and Life Coaching

Personal Brand · Content Strategy · Organic Lead Generation · Oct 2024 to Apr 2026

Who they are

- Self-improvement and life coaching creator with real on-camera presence
- Wanted a personal brand in the mould of Hamza Ahmed, the self-improvement YouTuber
- No audience and no engine turning his frameworks into reach

What they wanted

- Build a personal brand and position him as an authority in the niche
- Turn that following into organic leads for his life coaching business
- Leave a base he could later monetise through coaching or a digital product

The creator

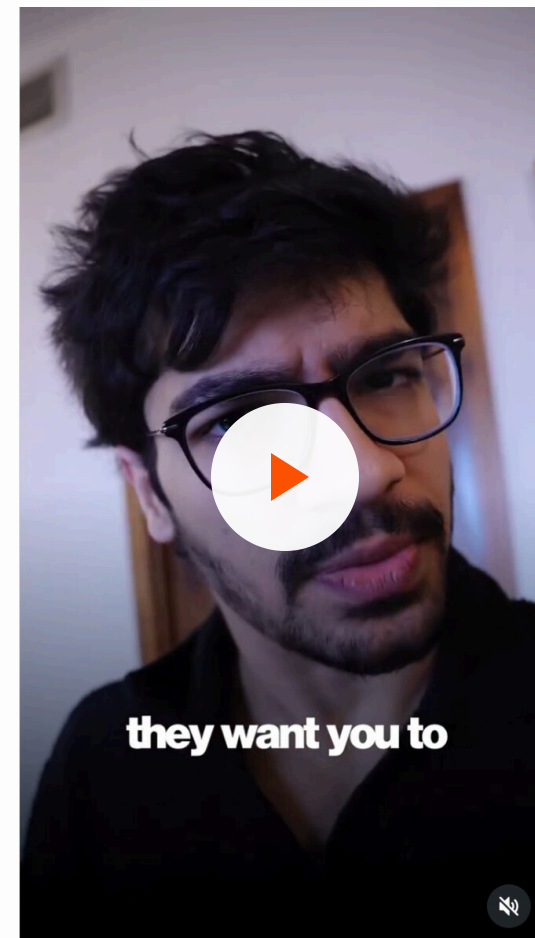

Sahaj Talwar

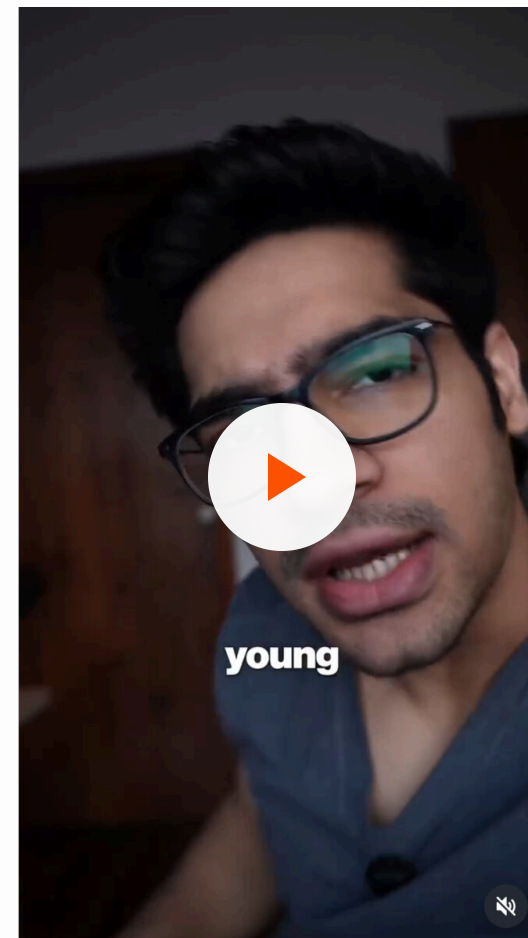

What we did.

- Positioned him as an expert in self-improvement rather than a general motivation account
- Built content pillars off that positioning so every reel reinforced one authority claim
- Every reel shipped with three hook variations, tested on Instagram Trial Reels before anything went public
- Winners posted, losers banked, so the account only ever showed the audience a proven hook
- Built an organic lead funnel on top of the reach once the audience existed

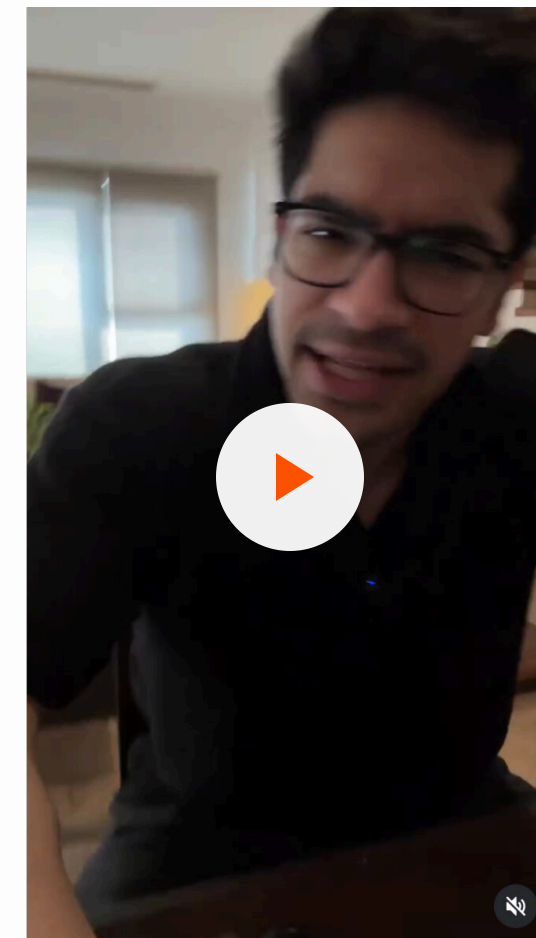

Content and creative output

The organic lead funnel.

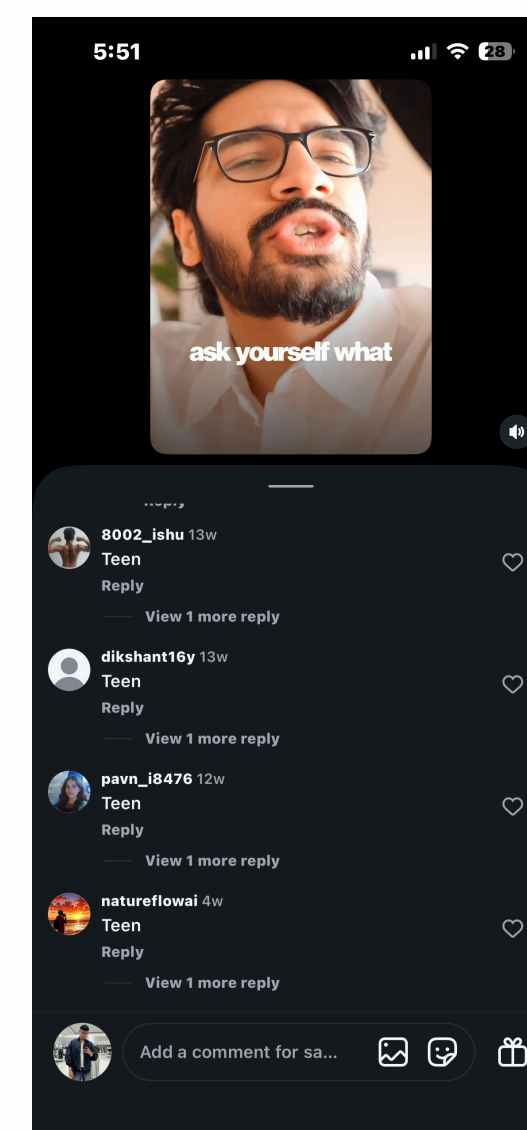

- Built on top of the reach once the audience existed, so attention converted into contacts instead of just views

- 01 A CTA on reels asked the audience to comment one keyword, teen
- 02 The comment triggered an auto-DM carrying a link to a free three-hour mega course on self-improvement
- 03 The course nurtured the audience while the DM captured their email
- 04 Those contacts became a retargetable list, and the source of the organic leads

Scuderia Ferrari × ZCG × Silver Sevens

Motorsport · Las Vegas Grand Prix

Creative Production · Video Production · 2023

Who they are

- ZCG and the Silver Sevens Hotel and Casino, Las Vegas, partnered with Scuderia Ferrari
- One joint activation across the 2023 Las Vegas Grand Prix weekend

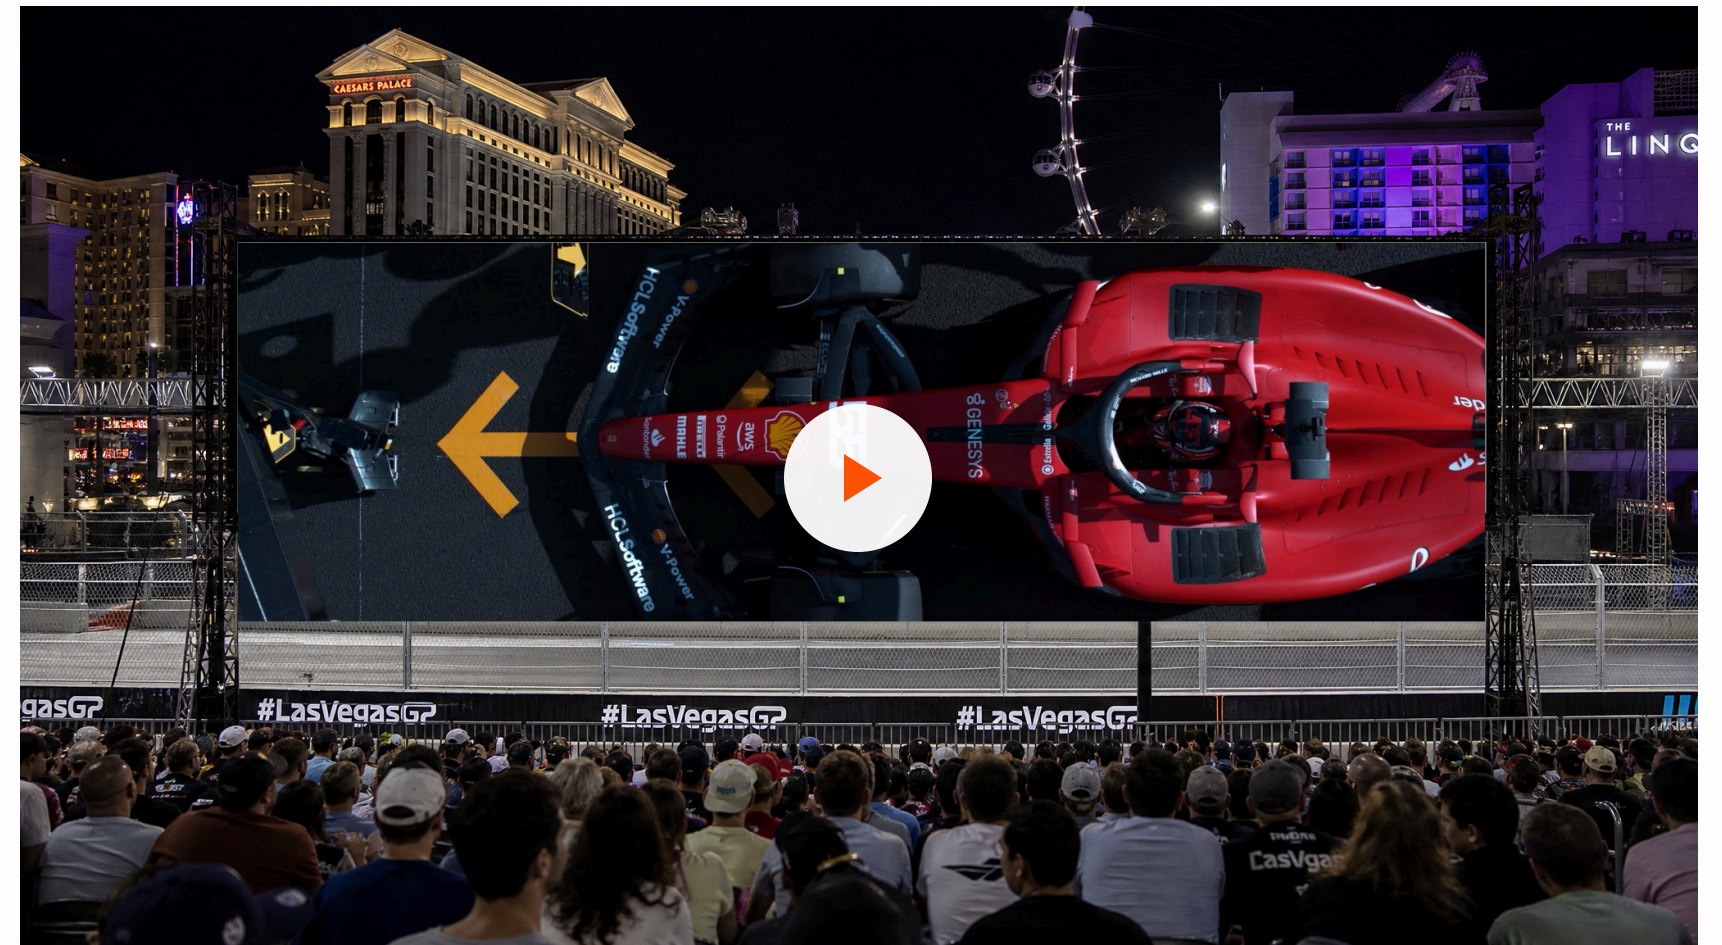

What they wanted

- Give the partnership a presence that works at race scale
- From the stands to the phone, in-venue screens to social

Our approach

- Shot one body of footage and cut it several ways
- Ultra-wide loop for the LED wall in the stands, vertical edits for social
- Square post carrying the ZCG and Ferrari team-partner lockup

Right Now With Rohan

Podcast · Hindi Long-Form

Marketing Strategy · Distribution · Positioning · Jul 2024 to Jul 2025

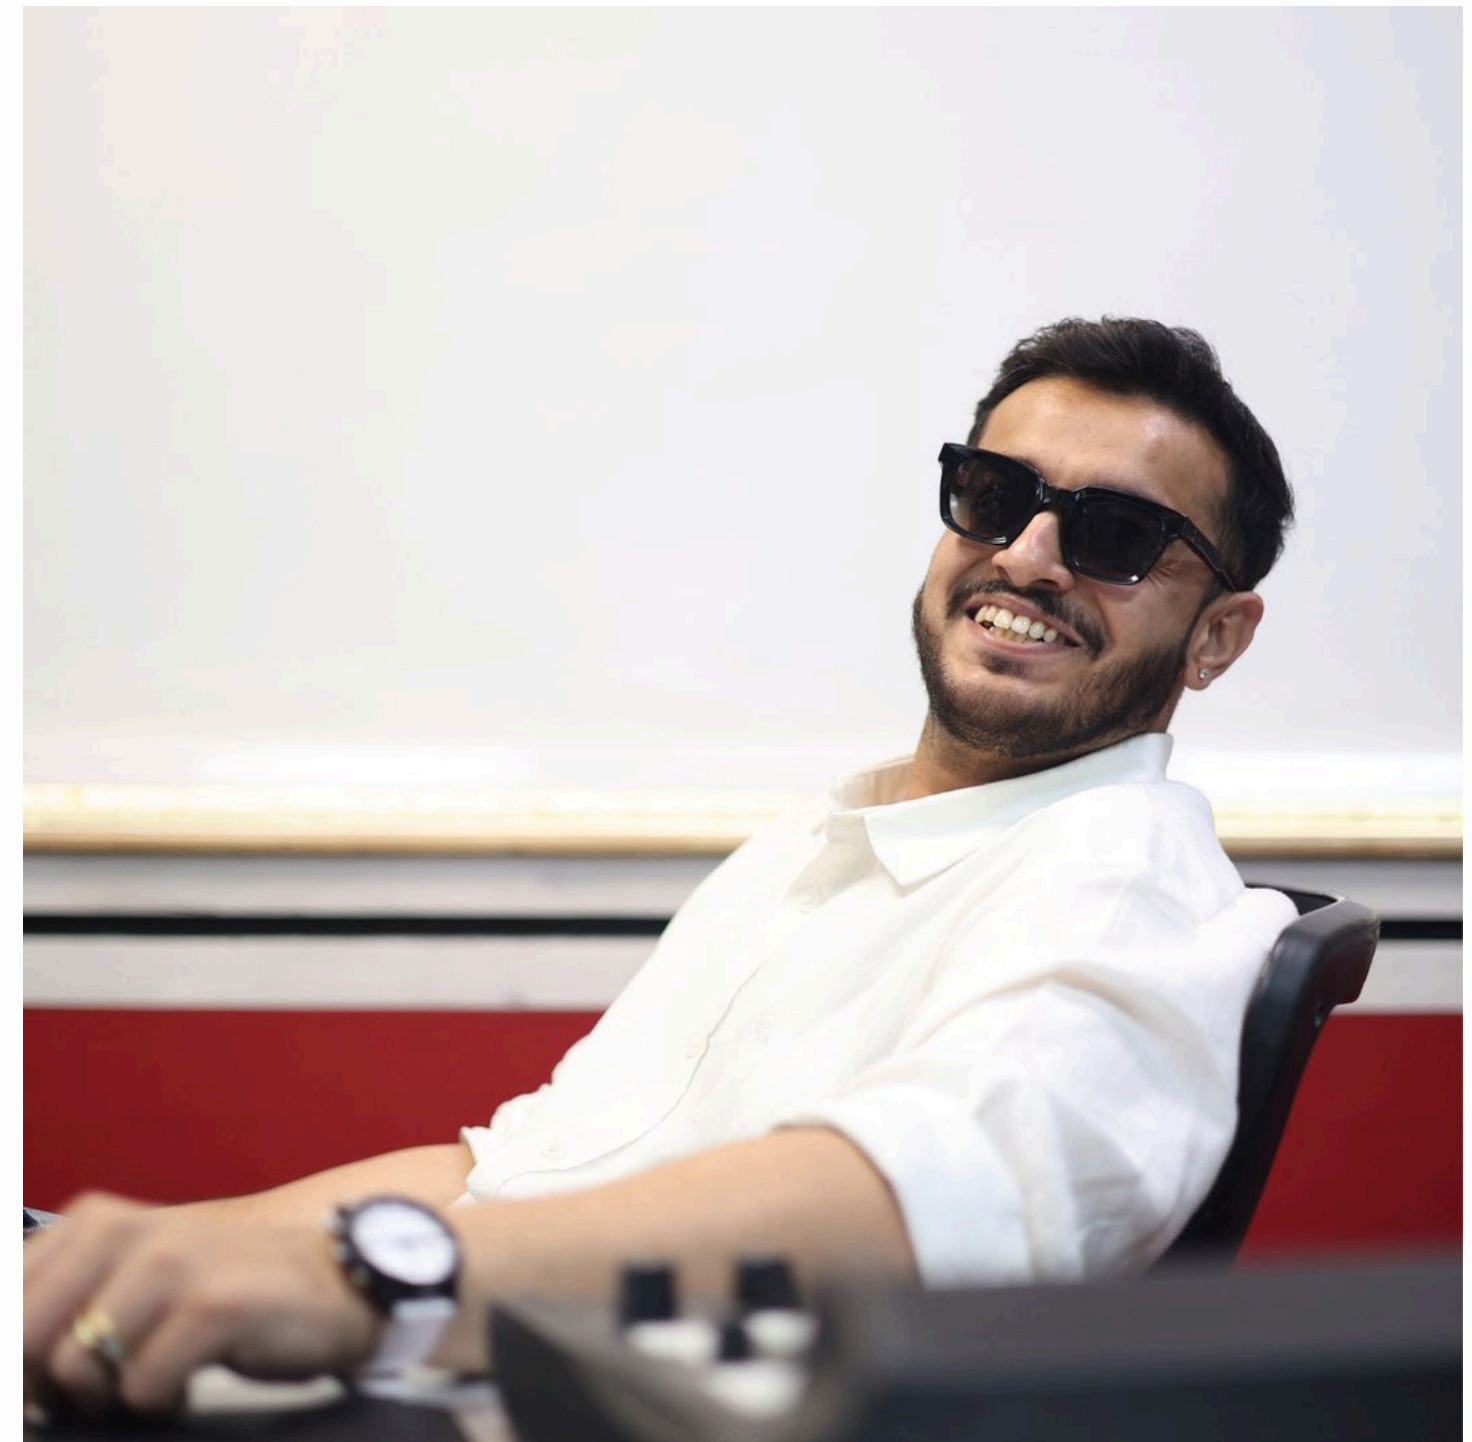

Who they are

- RJ Rohan is a radio jockey at Red FM Delhi who started out as a food blogger
- Hindi long-form interview podcast, launched from zero in July 2024

What they wanted

- Establish a premium Hinglish podcast brand
- Monetise through brand deals, paid podcasts and PR appearances
- Become one of the top podcasts in India

The host

Right Now With Rohan

What we did.

- Built a content repurposing machine around every episode
- Each episode ran one to two hours and was cut into 30 to 40 reels
- Distributed across Instagram, YouTube Shorts and Facebook, the three platforms that mattered
- Was cutting vertical clips before Reels had even launched
- Positioned Rohan as a podcaster rather than a radio host moonlighting

The Actor's Truth

Education · Acting Course

Content Repurposing · Performance Creative

Who they are

- An online acting course sitting on 100+ hours of recorded teaching footage
- No short-form presence built off any of it

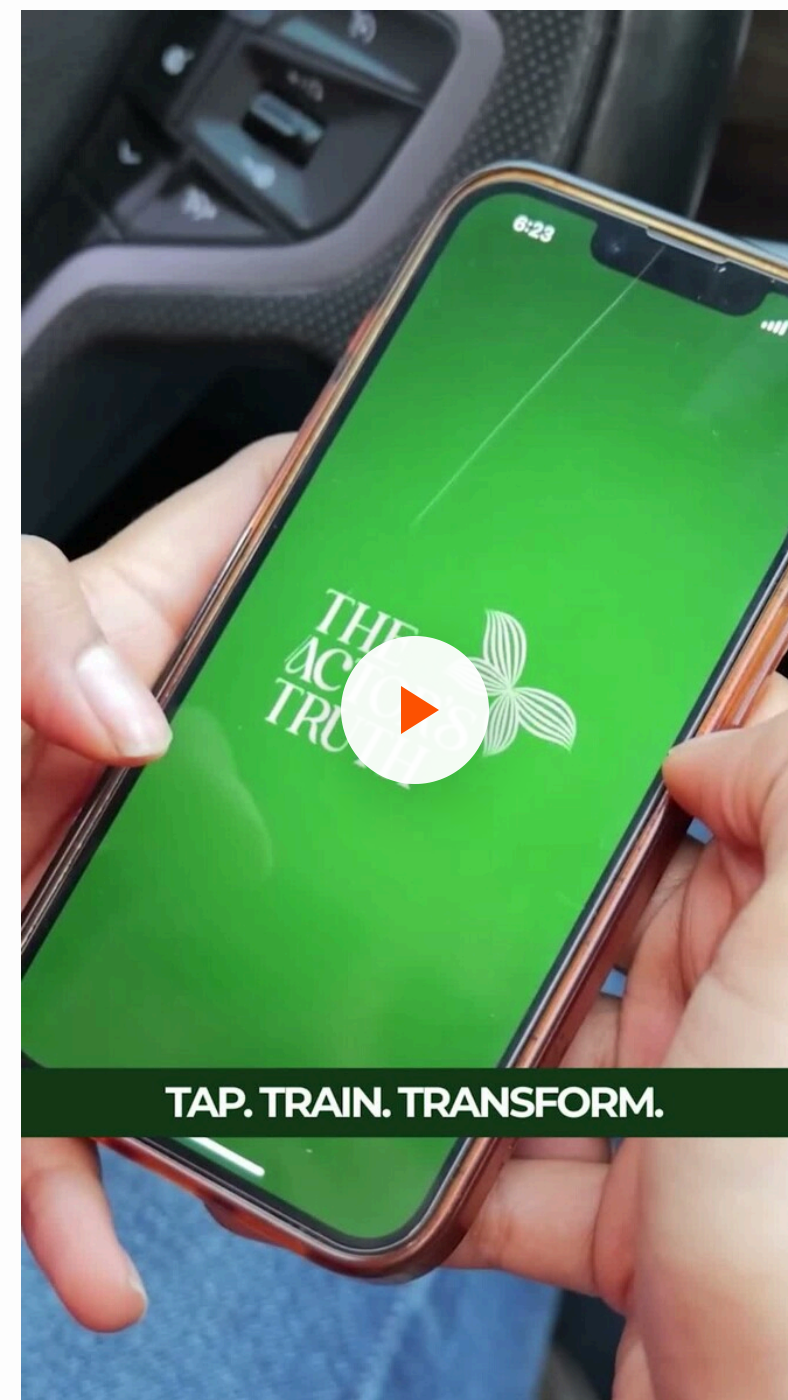

What they wanted

- Turn an enormous archive into social-ready content
- Produce performance creative that sells the course itself

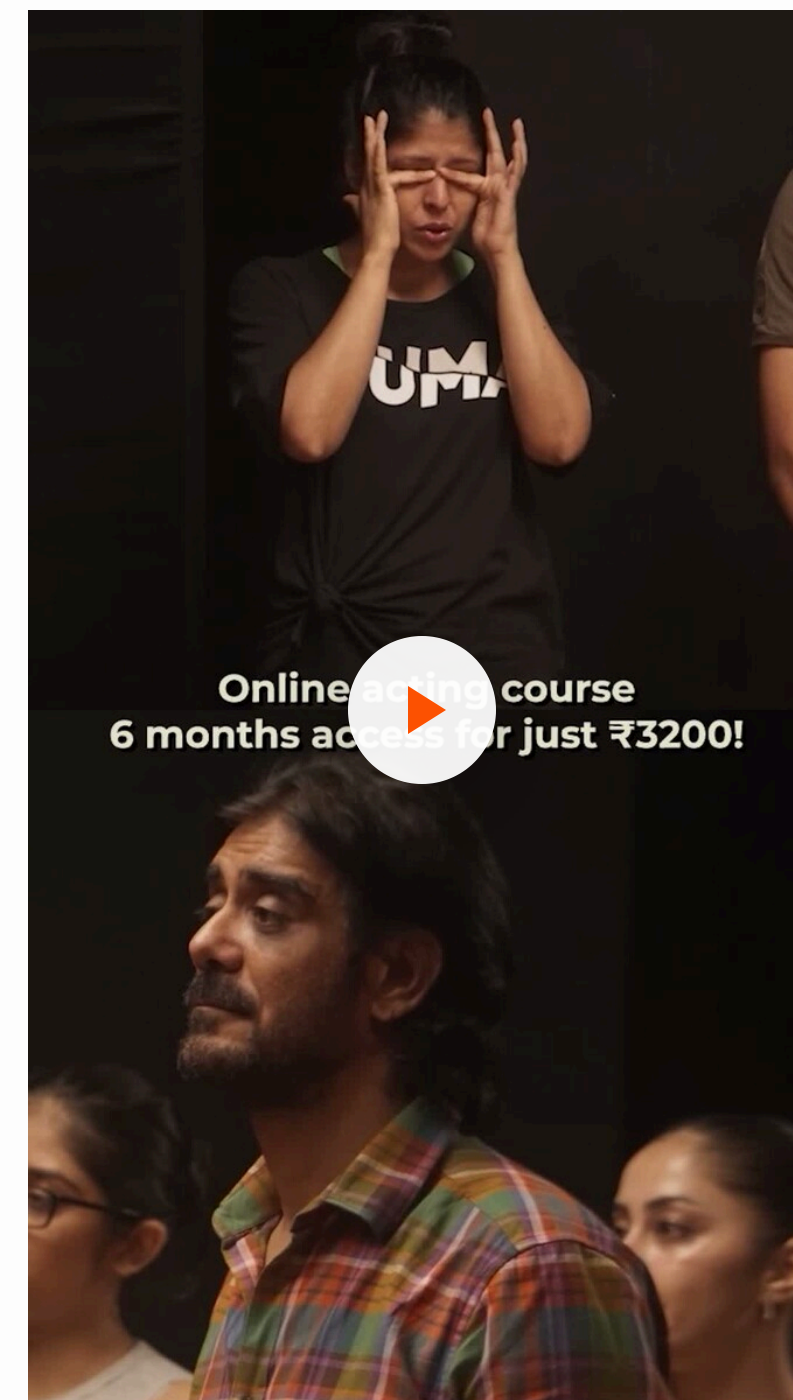

Our approach

- Defined the brand visual guideline and the editing guideline for reels
- Built a consistent, properly structured script format for them to work to
- Set the working rules for performance ads and video editing
- Cut standalone single-idea clips out of the long-form library

Who they are

- A finance creator, and one of the founders of Preparoo

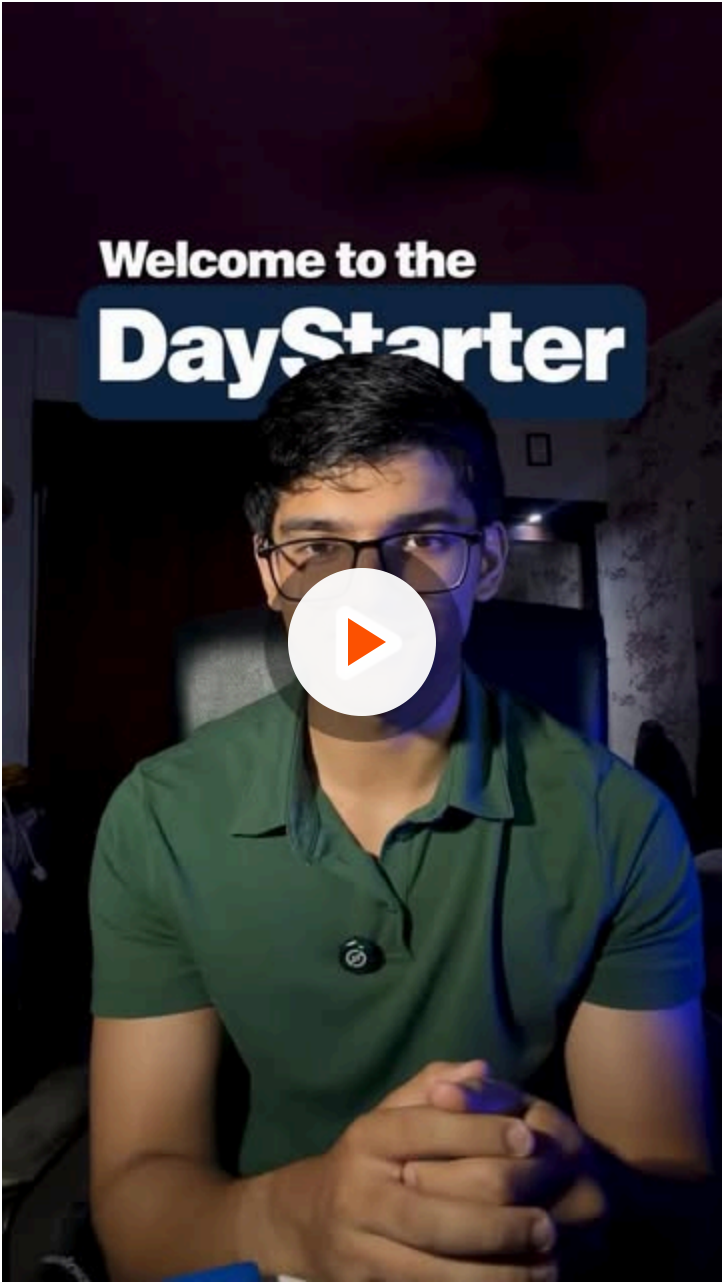

What they wanted

- Take video production off him so his time goes into being on camera

Our approach

- Video editing and production across his reels and long-form
- Phase 1 is consistency: get him posting reliably, with a consistent visual edit
- Phase 2 takes on Instagram content strategy and positioning, moving him from student creator to founder of Preparoo

Skincare · D2C Performance

Video Production · 3D Animation · Performance Creative

Delivered in collaboration with our partner agency Rush XR, who handled all production and the shoot.

Who they are

- Science-led skincare brand running performance marketing on its serum and face wash range

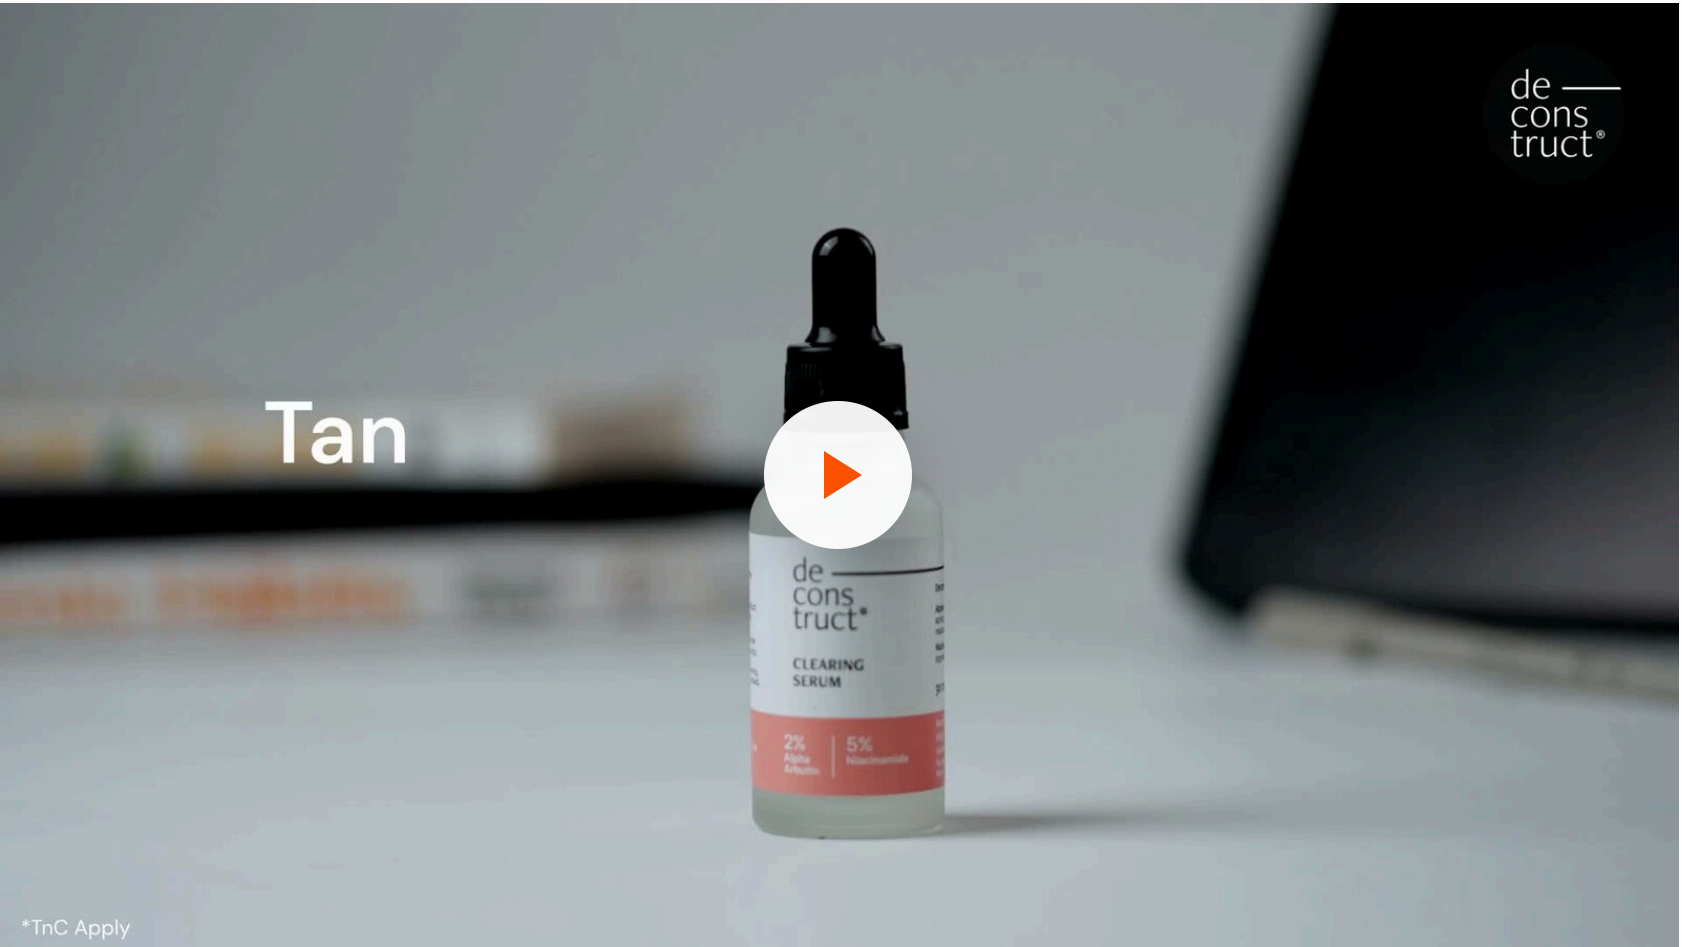

What they wanted

- Produce performance ads that convert
- Fix a product that was not reading correctly on camera

Our approach

- The problem was not the ad: the texture on screen did not match the texture in hand
- Solved it on set rather than in post
- Built 3D animation around the corrected footage so claims stay legible at feed speed

Delivered in collaboration with our partner agency Rush XR, who handled all production and the shoot.

Who they are

- Medical scrubs brand preparing a full product launch
- Came to us after a previous shoot failed to deliver what they needed

What they wanted

- Produce the entire launch asset library
- Rebuild the brand's confidence in handing over creative direction

Our approach

- Arrived burnt by a shoot that had not worked, so the first job was trust, not pictures
- A month of pre-production and a moodboard detailed enough to see the output before the camera came out
- On the day, the moodboard and the final frames matched

Campaign creatives

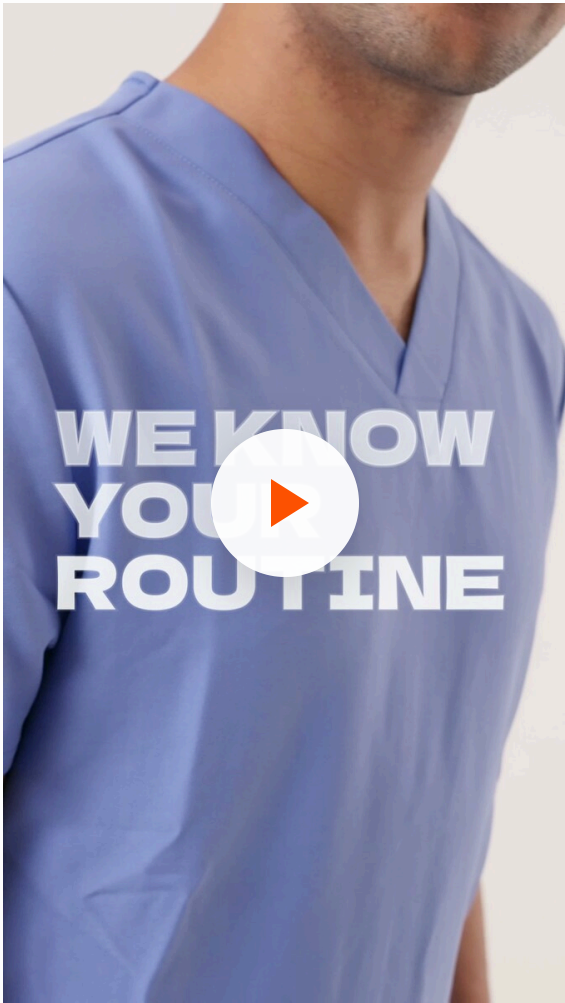

Campaign creative

What we did.

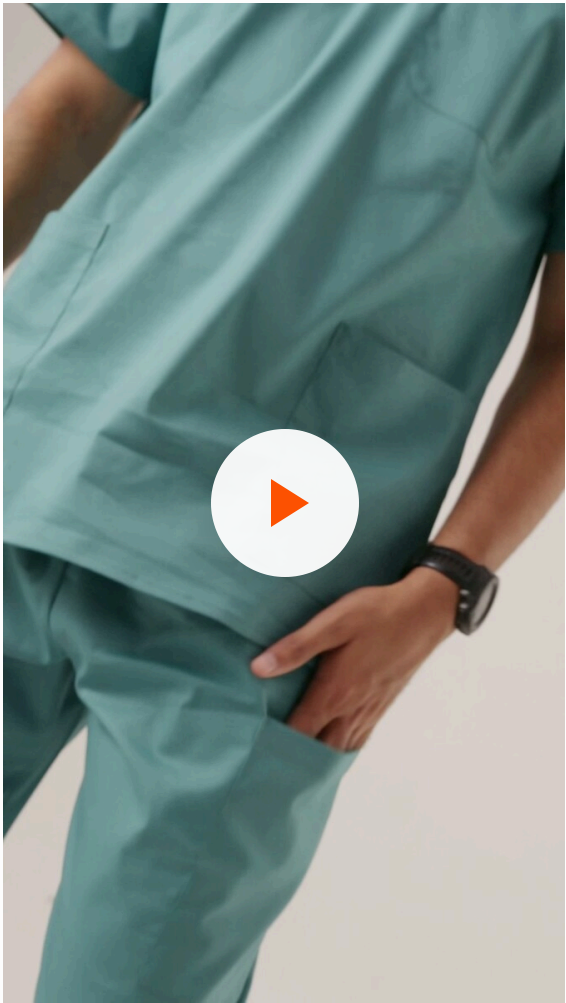

Scope of work

- Month-long pre-production before a single frame was shot
- Competitor research and content strategy for the category
- Built a detailed moodboard covering lighting, angles and colourways
- Shot 100 images and 10 videos in a single day for the launch
- Produced the brand film and PDP product films
- Creative direction across stills and motion
